

17TH EUROPEAN FOREST
PEDAGOGICS CONGRESS
 20. – 22. Sept. 2023 | Bonn

AGORA

Wednesday, 20th September 2023, 16. – 18.00 h
 In the Conference office

Name	Institution	Project / Presentation
Maria De Cristofaro	Outreach and Capacity Building Forestry Officer, Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations (FAO)	Forests for a Sustainable Future: Educating Children. FAO Forestry Education Project in Tanzania and the Philippines.
Lisa Hafer and Elke Sprunkel	Naturschule Deutschland e.V.	The foundation is training multipliers in different apprenticeships in the area of environmental education. It presents its projects with a focus on our new apprenticeship on climate education.
Marián Taraba and Eva Vakulová	The National Forest Centre of the Slovak Republic	Cooperation of the organization National Forest Center - Slovakia and a project with the Republic of Moldova: transfer of forestry knowledge and increasing of awareness about sustainable use of natural resources. Based on cooperation between the National Forestry Centre and partner organizations from Moldova.
Christa Vitt-Lechtenberg und Kerstin Schiele	Wald und Holz NRW	Further training to become a state-certified forest educator. A qualification course launched by the Forestry Chiefs' Conference that sees forest education as a contribution to ESD. This further training is offered in 11 federal states according to common minimum standards and is mutually recognised.

Jonas Schatz	Jonas Schatz: Virtual Tours and Augmented Reality in Forestry Teaching and Education	Jonas Schatz will show various examples of forest-related virtual tours. In addition, a forest educational walk with augmented reality is presented.
Christian Schweihofen	Oberstufenkolleg Bielefeld, Germany Escola de Capataces Forestais de Lourizán, Spain	“You don't learn to restore ecosystems in the classroom!” - but in forest-related networks: Highschool research projects as a citizen science in the context of "Sustainable Development Education".
Theresa Funk	Schutzgemeinschaft Deutscher Wald Bundesverband e.V.	Actual projects and general information about the SDW